

Year 6 Autumn 1

Week 1 Suffix 'ant', 'ance', 'ancy' – adjective into noun	Week 2 Suffix 'ent', 'ence', 'ency' – adjective into noun	Week 3 Suffix/shul/<tial> After the 'ce' ending	Week 4 Suffix/shul/<tial> After the 'ce' ending	Week 5 Hyphens used to join a prefix to a root word where the prefix and root word end & begin with a vowel.	Week 6 Hyphens used to join compound adjectives to avoid ambiguity	Week 6 Y5/6 Common Exception Words
hesitant hesitance hesitancy reluctant reluctance reluctancy relevant relevance relevancy	excellent excellence excellency dependent dependence dependency obedient obedience obediency	palace palatial residence residential space spatial sequence sequential influence influential	evidence evidential substance substantial essence essential preference preferential office official	co-own co-operate co-ordinate co-exist co-operation re-enter re-educate re-examine re-elect re-energise	wide-eyed man-eating green-eyed tight-fitting cold-hearted stone-faced short-tempered big-headed tight-lipped razor-sharp	available average awkward bargain bruise category cemetery committee communicate community